

Partners in Confronting Collective Atrocities

presents

Exclusion,
Resentment
and the Return of the Repressed

Europe in a Globalized world

An Experiential Working Conference in the Series of the Past in the Present

Ernst Sillem Hoeve, Den Dolder,
The Netherlands

30th Aug - 3rd Sept 2018

The European Union was built in the shadow of the Holocaust in the aftermath of the war, partly to avoid a repetition of that past tragedy.

Was it only a dream or an ideal?

Old paradigms are being challenged by events such as Brexit, mass migration, financial instability and terrorist attacks. Feelings of exclusion and inclusion fuel resentment and paranoia which permeate the psyche, identity, culture and politics.

What is going on beneath the surface?

This conference is a unique opportunity to explore Exclusion, Resentment and the Return of the Repressed. Europe in a Globalized World. Read more and register on p-cca.org/2018

About PCCA

Partners in Confronting Collective Atrocities (PCCA) has a long standing tradition in applying Group Relations methods to study societal issues - German and Israeli, Palestinians, West and East Europeans and others globally - through the experience of conference participants, assisted by experienced international staff. This conference is to be a continuation of this stream and is directed by Louisa Diana Brunner.

Sponsored by

Supported by

Universiteit Utrecht