Race Relations in America: Leadership, Organizational Dynamics, and ____

The New York Center for the Study of Groups, Organizations, and Social Systems, Russell Sage College Education Department and the Capital Area School Development Association (CASDA) are excited to announce a virtual group relations event that foregrounds Race Relations in America

This three-day event is designed to support leaders of varying backgrounds to engage in a dialogue on race relations across the boundaries of racial lines using group relations methodology that is informed by experiential learning. Past, present and future leaders will have the opportunity to explore their organizational experience with race relations in America, while forming a temporary learning organization.

On March 25-27, 2022, all are invited to join this virtual conference group relations conference. Register here
