

newyorkcenter
for the study of groups, organizations, & social systems

New York Center for the Study of Groups, Organizations, & Social Systems invites you to

THE 2018 HOLIDAY EVENT

Date: Sunday, December 9, 2018

Time: 11am - 2pm

Location: Community Resource Exchange

42 Broadway #2000

New York, NY 10004

Join us for a panel discussion about applications of group relations work in real life.

Refreshments will be served.

RSVP Here:

<https://goo.gl/forms/BnDtP2dPnjOXOdDA3>

Panelist

Evan Malater PhD, LCSW is a psychoanalyst in private practice in New York. He is the longtime moderator of the Unbehagen Salon, a listserv serving the Das Unbehagen community of psychoanalysts.

Panelist

Glenn Sigl is the Director of Organization and Talent Development for Equity Residential, a Real Estate Investment Trust, and has over 25 years of HR/OD experience. He is also a 4th year doctoral student in Leadership and Organizational Psychology at William James College in Boston. While studying at William James, he has taken group relations courses, attended conferences and received Whole Systems Consulting training through AKRI. He uses group relations as a diagnostic lens for coaching, consulting and facilitation. He is an avid reader, classical music and opera enthusiast, theater lover and life-long learner. He lives in Washington, DC.

Moderator

Yaro Fong-Olivares is a nonprofit management Consultant at Community Resource Exchange. She is a graduate of Barnard College and The New School. Currently she serves as Secretary, Executive Committee, New York Center for the Study of Groups, Organizations, & Social Systems and recently was elected as the New York Center's president, beginning in January, 2019.